Senators Won't Have to Draw Lots

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Circuit Judge Warren E. Wood ruled Monday that 26 of the state's 35 senators would not have to draw lots to see which ones would stand for election this year after serving only two years.

Wood held that the 26 senators elected in 1966 from senatorial districts changed by the 1965 reapportionment of the legislature were entitled to serve full four-year terms and would stand for reelection in 1970.

The nine senators whose terms expire this year are the only ones who have to run for reelection in 1968, he said. Odell Pollard of Searcy, state Republican party chairman who filed the suit, contended that Amendment 23 of the state Constitution required that the 26 senators draw lots.

He cited a section that said that after an apportionment of districts for both senators and representatives, the Senate shall be divided into two classes by lots with 18 to serve two-year terms and 17 four-year terms after which all would be elected to four-year terms.

LBJ's First Dallas Visit Since Incident

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer
DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson visited Dallas today for the first time since the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and, driving to the Memorial Auditorium where he spoke, passed within sight of the Texas Schoolbook Depository and Parkland Hospital where Kennedy died.

Johnson flew to Dallas without advance announcement to address the 10,000 delegates at the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association convention.

In his speech, he emphasized two themes:

— Cooperation among city and rural folk to build a "shining and peaceful land."

— In the face of Communist offensives in Vietnam, the President said that in this country there must be "no retreat from responsibility."

Mississippi Voters to Polls Today

By JAMES BONNEY
Associated Press Writer
JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Voters in 12 southwest Mississippi counties cast ballots to select a congressman today under the scrutiny of federal poll watchers.

The field of candidates include Charles Evers, a Negro civil rights leader, a white Republican and five white Democrats.

The U.S. Justice Department said poll watchers were "routine" in such Mississippi elections. The observers have been instructed to watch election procedures and report any irregularities.

The candidates are bidding for the seat vacated when John Bell Williams retired after 21 years to become governor.

Polls opened at 7 a.m. and close at 6 p.m. The weather was crisp and sunny with temperatures in the 60s.

There are about 195,000 registered voters in the 3rd district, including about 65,000 Negroes. Only 90,000 votes were expected to be cast, however, as little interest was generated during the month-long campaign.

If no candidate receives a majority a runoff will be held.

Will Probe War News Restriction

By WILLIAM MORAN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman John E. Moss of the House government information subcommittee, saying he's investigating new U.S. restrictions on release of Vietnam war news, contends reports on the war's progress must not be censored.

"It is more important now than at any time since our involvement there that we be fully informed about the war," the California Democrat said Monday night in an interview.

Moss said he has asked Phil G. Couklung, assistant secretary of defense, for a full explanation of the restrictions, which were imposed in Saigon Monday.

In addition, Moss said, his subcommittee staff is asking for a complete file on all cables and other messages between Saigon and Washington dealing with the matter.

The U.S. Command imposed restrictions on release to the press of information dealing with American casualties, damage done by enemy gunfire and the number of enemy shells fired when such information is considered to be of intelligence value to the Communists.

A Pentagon spokesman said the restrictions are not expected to affect the daily release of casualty lists and the Defense Department's weekly report on the over-all totals of men killed and wounded.

There was no immediate indication of full censorship on news dispatches, as was the case during World War II and the Korean War.

Brig. Gen. Winant Sidle, chief of information for the U.S. Military Command, issued the directive. He planned to meet with Saigon newsmen today to clarify it. Among questions expected to be raised was whether the restrictions mean correspondents no longer will be allowed to report what they observe in the field.

Sidle's directive said U.S. authorities have "always reserved the prerogative of withholding information which would give aid and comfort to the enemy."

Moss said limited restrictions for security reasons are understandable. But he added: "The measure of progress of U.S. and South Vietnamese troops is important and we must know what it is. It cannot be censored."

U.S. Marine combat base at Khe Sanh.

The U.S. Command said the allied force blew up one of the vehicles with antitank rockets and the explosion killed 30 enemy soldiers.

"To blow up that hard, it had to have a lot of ammunition in it," one U.S. officer said.

Some South Vietnamese sources said there were reports the tanks were Russian T34s, a World War II weapon.

The U.S. Command said that after nearly two hours of fighting, the vehicles that were still mobile and the remainder of the enemy force broke contact and fled to the west, presumably to Cambodia. But a U.S. spokesman said the enemy later launched a counterattack and the force of about 100 South Vietnamese and Americans then withdrew.

Neither the South Vietnamese nor American spokesmen had any reports of the armored vehicles opening fire. The U.S. Command said there were no American casualties and South Vietnamese casualties were "light."

Speculation about a new Communist buildup along the Cambodian border was strengthened by another Green Beret ambush earlier Monday at Loc Ninh, 80 miles north of Saigon. The Americans and their South Vietnamese irregulars pounced on a 2½-ton truck carrying Communist troops, destroyed the vehicle and killed 17 of the enemy, the U.S. Command said.

One American was wounded and South Vietnamese casualties were again described as light.

Loc Ninh was the kickoff point for a Communist offensive late last October. For a week the enemy tried to overrun the district headquarters compound, a Special Forces camp and a U.S. 1st Infantry Division patrol and artillery base. But they were beaten back after more than 1,000 were killed.

Undeterred, the Reds attacked government district towns and U.S. reinforcements along the Cambodian border and struck at the Bu Dop Special Forces camp.

Communist gunners again shelled Saigon's Tan Son Nhut airbase early today and other sections of the capital and its suburbs. No casualties and only light damage were reported at the sprawling military and civilian air base, but South Vietnamese military spokesmen said more than 100 homes outside the base were set afire and there were some civilian casualties.

In the northwest corner of the country, where the Communists used tanks for the first time in the war to overrun the Lang Vei special forces camp three weeks ago, Communist shelling of the U.S. Marine combat base at Khe Sanh continued without let-

Gary judge's advice to parents: Induce your boy to be a Newspaper carrier

'He will gain a confidence in himself that will stand him in good stead for the rest of his life,' Judge Kaplan says in courtroom

Judge Richard S. Kaplan, of the Gary, Indiana, City Court, recently told parents in his courtroom that most boys' troubles begin because they have nothing to do.

"Unless boys are given some program of activities," Judge Kaplan said, "they become bored, and boredom is a dangerous state for both children and adults."

"A solution is to induce your boy to join the large ranks of newspaper carriers. All he has to do is apply at a local newspaper and he will start on a lucrative and pleasant occupation."

He Will Learn Initiative
"As a newspaperboy—and some of our greatest men in America started as newspaperboys—your son will learn initiative. He will meet his neighbors, he'll learn the meaning of working and earning his own money, and he'll gain a sense of importance and independence."

"You will rarely find a newspaperboy who is a juvenile delinquent."

"Give him this inspiration to begin a business-building program now which will pay increasing dividends after the close of school and even when school begins. He will gain a confidence in himself which will stand him in good stead for the rest of his life. This is one sure way to prevent your son from becoming bored and it will keep him out of trouble."

430,000 in Florida Out of School

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Pressures for a special legislative session on education mounted today as Florida's statewide teacher strike entered its seventh class day with some 430,000 pupils once more heading for the beaches and sandlots instead of schoolrooms.

Some 300 University of Florida professors signed a petition in Gainesville Monday, urging Gov. Claude Kirk to call the legislature back. In Miami, Dade County senators mailed a petition to Tallahassee. The legislature can call itself into special session with a three-fifths vote.

A proposed summit meeting on education—designed to bring teachers and lawmakers closer together—flopped Monday night, leaving both camps farther apart.

Florida Education Association officials, who had invited legislative leaders "to sit down and talk" at a Tallahassee hotel, waited for an hour for the lawmakers. The legislators huddled at the State Capitol, several blocks away, and finally asked the teachers to come to the Capitol and talk. The teachers rejected the invitation.

"We were deeply disappointed, after waiting for more than an hour, that government leaders who we had publicly invited for possibly constructive discussion, chose instead to hold their own meeting at the Capitol," said Phil Constans, FEA executive secretary.

Some 22,000 of Florida's 55,000 teachers were off the job Monday with three counties reporting all schools closed. Many counties opened school just for seniors and other scheduled double sessions.

Substitute teachers were put to work in nearly all 67 counties. Only six small population counties reported no absenteeism among teachers. In some of the big counties more than half of the teachers were out.

In Palm Beach County, the School Board unanimously voted Monday night to accept resignations from half of the county's 2,600 teachers. School Supt. Robert W. Fulton begged the school board to delay the decision, calling it "the most momentous decision Palm Beach County has ever had to cope with."

Students marched outside with signs that said "Subs Go Home" and "Let Us Graduate. Kirk Won't."

Dade County Sen. Robert Shevin said the petition for a special legislative session was prompted by a report from a "reliable source in Tallahassee" that Kirk would veto the controversial $254.5-million education package today.

Kirk has until March 7 to act on the bill which teachers call misleading and inadequate. Lawmakers say it gives education more money than any piece of legislation ever passed in Florida.

banquet in Manhattan is important is to look around and see whether genial James A. Farley, the former U.S. postmaster general, is there. If he isn't, you can figure there's a bigger and probably better banquet somewhere else in town. Jim at 79 is still the bellwether and barometer of the banquet business.

Farms are getting fewer, cities getting larger. While this trend has its disadvantages, it also promises one great boon. At future cocktail parties you won't run into so many of those folksy fellows who proclaim, "I'm just a pore 'ol ole country boy tryin' to git along."

Maybe what this country needs is a fat man as president. When William Howard Taft lived in the White House—from 1909 to 1913—the country had rarely ever been calmer at home or freer from wars and armaments abroad. Taft weighed between 300 and 334 pounds. Could there be a connection between presidential girth and national peace?

Few things annoy the head of a business firm more, after he thrifflily dries his hands on a single paper towel in the washroom, than seeing the office boy come in and use three or four to perform the same chore. But—that's democracy.

Even more than men, women are likely to judge the desirability of a thing by its price. If beer were to suddenly go to $10 a bottle and champagne fall to a dime a bucket, nine out of ten women would immediately decide they disliked champagne because of its nasty bubbles and preferred beer because it has such lovely foam.

Winter has been too much with us. It sure is a long time between Aprils, isn't it? I'd give a million leeches right now for the sight of one golden dandelion.

SHE STALKS TO CONQUER—AND DOESN'T

Dear Helen: I have a girl problem. Like one too many! Not that I'm a BMOC, but there's this girl who seems to be after me. She's everywhere I am. She tells people I'm her boyfriend. She flirts with me and acts like she owns me which burns my real girl. I don't lead her on, though she's pretty good looking—just not my type.

How can I stop her stalking me without hurting her feelings?

—HAUNTED

Dear Haunted: Aim her at a boy who thinks she's great. If this doesn't work, it's time for some brotherly advice: like—girl who haunts guy hasn't ghost of chance with him—H.

Dear Helen: Will all fellas please hear this!

It's about time you males got together and changed the line you hand us girls. Your same old sales pitch is so predictable I could die laughing.

Ask yourselves how many times you've told a girl you "love her" on the first date? Next time I hear this from a guy I scarcely know, I'll ask, "And what are you going to say for an encore?"

How many of you Don Juans have told a girl you would never want to marry a virgin? Who are you trying to kid? Just imagine if it was your sister being handed this line. I bet you'd knock the guy down.

or espoused the cause of any candidate in opposition to a nominee of the Democratic party . . .

That requirement apparently would have prevented Johnson from being the 1968 gubernatorial nominee, since he had openly supported Goldwater two years earlier.

Another change in the loyalty pledge would require candidates to stipulate that they aren't "affiliated with, nor do I support the Republican party or any other political party which is opposed to the principles of the Democratic party."

If that change were in effect this year, it would bar Johnson from running for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination this year, which he has said he might do.

Other proposed changes would:

- Remove provisions outlawed by federal law, such as those dealing with support of segregation and the payment of a poll tax.
- Enlarge the State Committee and guarantee representation for Negroes and Young Democrats.
- Prohibit proxy votes at meetings of the State Committee.
- Create an audit committee to administer party finances.

Thinks LSD Law Would Be Unenforceable

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Republican congressman says a proposal to make possession of LSD a crime "is absolutely unenforceable." He said indications are that nearly two million students use the drug.

Rep. Tim Lee Carter of Kentucky made the comment to a reporter Monday after a House Commerce subcommittee on which he sits heard Commissioner James L. Goddard of the Food and Drug Administration support the administration bill. Goddard added, however, that he personally disagrees with possession penalties.

"I wouldn't propose that section if it were to be under my jurisdiction," Goddard said, expressing doubts about the effect of such a penalty as a deterrent. Administration law enforcement officials said it would help them crack down on use of the hallucinogens and other dangerous drugs.

Carter said surveys on LSD usage indicated that perhaps 1.6 million high school and 300,000 college students use the hallucinogen.

"How can we imprison 1.9 million students in the United States?" Carter asked.

Enforcement of the administration's proposal would be by the Justice Department. A companion proposal would transfer the Narcotics Bureau to the Jus-interior by Mrs. McDowell Turner DAR Good Citizen chairman, was made on George Washington's birthday. So said, "How fitting it is to 'pin' one of our young people as gentleman and future leader, even president."

Justice Department from the Treasury Department.

Carter appeared to be in a minority in opposing the administration proposal to make LSD possession a misdemeanor punishable by up to one year in prison.

Rep. Paul G. Rogers, D-Fla., acting subcommittee chairman, said he expects the recommendation to be approved.

There is strong agreement on the remainder of the bill, which would stiffen penalties against manufacture, sale, distribution and possession for sale or distribution of hallucinogenic, stimulant and depressant drugs.

Louisville Moves Into Cage Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Louisville Cardinals clinched the Missouri Valley Conference championship over the weekend and now have a ranking position in The Associated Press' college basketball poll to show for it.

The Cardinals, 18-6, took over ninth place as Vanderbilt, ninth last week, dropped out of the Top Ten. The Commodores were beaten by Georgia 91-77 for their fifth loss of the campaign.

Marquette and Duke were the only other teams involved in shifts in the latest poll based on games through last Saturday. Marquette, winner over St. John's of New York and South Dakota, advanced from 10th to eighth while the Blue Devils slipped two positions to 10th after losing to South Carolina.

Houston maintained a solid lead in the balloting by a national panel of 33 sports writers and broadcasters. The Cougars collected 25 first-place votes and 321 points. UCLA held second place, receiving eight first-place votes and 305 points.

Unbeaten Houston crushed Texas-Arlington 130-75 and Valparaiso 158-81 last weekend and lifted its record to 25-0. UCLA, with 21 victories and a lone setback by Houston, beat Washington 84-67 in its only start last week. North Carolina, with 258 points, remained in the No. 3 spot. Points were awarded on a basis of 10 for a first-place vote, 9 for second, 8 for third, etc.

The Tarheels, 22-1, downed Maryland 83-60 and Virginia 92-74 in last week's action. Undeclared St. Bonaventure continued in fourth place followed in order by Kentucky, Columbia and New Mexico. The Bonnies ran their victory string to 20 by defeating Creighton and Canisius.

Next Move in Dispute Up to the NCAA

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The next move in the long dispute over control of track and field is up to the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

The Amateur Athletic Union's Executive Committee voted unanimously Monday to accept a Feb. 1 decision of an arbitration board. That decision gives sole control of all open track meets — including the use of nonstudent athletes and foreigners — to the AAU.

The United States Track and Field Federation, an arm of the NCAA, was granted control over college meets confined to student-athletes.

The arbitration board was set up in 1965 by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey to settle the long-standing feud over control of the sport between the AAU,

Best Year Ever for Hope Girls

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

When a thirty-one game season comes down to the last minute of play in state finals, and you lose, it can be a very tearful experience.

The Lady Cats had to be one of the tightest teams emotionally every to be concocted. They were all like sisters, and Coach Charlotte Gibson turned in a perfect job in guiding the girls to a 25-6 record. The following is a summary of the long and illustrious season.

Before the season the Lady Cats were built up high, and in their first performance they rolled over Prescott 42-15. Then came a two game set with Bradley, who were the aristocrats of girls basketball in Arkansas. In their first meeting at Jones Field House Hope hung close for a good while, but Bradley closed fast for a 76-64 win. Now a determined Hope squad had to go to Bradley to meet the Bearettes, and many were confident that Bradley's long win streak would fall.

That game was a nightmare in itself, as Bradley romped 55-19. At this point one could tell that all the pre-season publicity had had an ill effect on the Lady Cats. It came under spotlight that night at Bradley that the team's attitude and preparation was just not right.

So Coach Gibson threw in some rough practices over the Thanksgiving holidays, and in their next game the Lady Cats battered Cale 53-6. December the 2nd brought a rough opponent, though, as Hope went to Ashdown to play the Panthers for the first time. Without their unfound zip the Lady Cats lost a tough one 55-50, and suddenly the halled Lady Cats were 2-3, which certainly could not be determined as satisfactory. The following week Hope beat Prescott 61-38 and Bodcaw 57-25 at home, and with a Monday night 48-11 rapping of Springfield entered the OBU Tigerette Invitational at Arkadelphia with a 5-3 record.

In the first round the Lady Cats walked over England 55-26, and had to meet undefeated Woodlawn in the quarterfinals. At half-time of that game, trailing 24-22, a change came over the Hope Lady Cats.

Throwing it all together for the first time, the Lady Cats whipped Woodlawn 52-45. Once-beaten Stephens fell prey in the semis 61-35, and Bradley loomed in the finals. Hope still wasn't ready to beat Bradley, though, and 63-50. Carol Anthony, Kathryn Coleman, and Kay Coleman made the All-Tourney team.

Hope had now won 6 out of 7 games, and it was winning streak time. Ashdown invaded, with the Lady Cats remembering that earlier loss. Hope had a hard time, but Anthony's 22-foot jumper won it 61-59 on the buzzer. In the last game before Christmas the girls ran their mark to 10-4 with a 53-29 trouncing of Prescott.

Although they entered January a little stale from the layoff, the reserves saw much action in beating Emmet 46-20 and Bodcaw 44-30. And with a 12-4 score-sheet, the Lady Cats had a full week to prepare for Bradley. In forward Gail Hartsfield's words, "it was the right time and the right place." In a game that put Hope on a new pinnacle of girls basketball, the Lady Cats stopped Bradley's winning streak short on January 11. A pair of foul shots by Carol Anthony with 0:02 remaining gave Hope the 61-60 win. For some of Bradley's girls the streak was about 90 games, but through the whole careers of the juniors and seniors it was approximately 130.

Rumors have spread since the Bradley game that the Lady Cats beat Bradley when the Bearettes couldn't even play three of their starters. Allow me to squelch those rumors, because Bradley started every starter who had begun for them before and have since. The Bearettes' only replacements were for girls in foul trouble, otherwise their best six girls were in there all the way.

Emmet was next to fall, and they were subdued 61-19. Now the Lady Cats came to the Gurdon Tournament as defending champions, and they won it again. Childerster went down 64-25. Carville was ousted 53-30, and the Lady Cats slugged Gurdon 65-46 to win it. Forwards Anthony and Kathryn Coleman made the All-Tournament team, as did guards Nellie Churchwell, Donna Byers and Kay Coleman.

After another week off Springfield was the next victim of the snowballing win streak 64-25. Then the Lady Cats substituted freely in a 52-43 win over De Queen. And in the last regularly-

Pipers Just Explode in Last Minutes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Pittsburgh's seventh straight victory was in doubt Monday night until the final 12 minutes — then the Pipers exploded.

When the smoke cleared, the Pipers had rammed in 51 points in the closing quarter and smashed Oakland 150-126, setting an American Basketball Association record for most total points in the process.

In the only other ABA game, Denver walloped Houston, 115-92.

Boston defeated San Diego 118-110 in the only National Basketball Association contest.

Pittsburgh led only 99-96 after three periods — scoring 33 points in each quarter until the record-setting spree. Connie Hawkins poured in 36 points for the Pipers and Chico Vaughn had 31, 12 in the final surge.

The Victory stretched Pittsburgh's lead in the Eastern Division to three games over Minnesota. Jim Hadnot paced Oakland with 34 points.

Denver, moving past Dallas by one-half game into second place in the Western Division was sparked by Larry Jones' 29 points. The Rockets trail league-leading New Orleans by three games.

The Rockets had a 57-38 edge at halftime and were never headed. Byron Beck added 22 points and Willie Murrell 21 for the winners. Houston's Willie Somerset had 30.

Boston's Bill Russell and Bailey Howell led a third-period surge which saw the Celtics break a 71-71 tie to go up 92-85.

Russell collected 14 points and nine rebounds in the spurt while Howell had three straight baskets.

State A-B Tournaments Underway

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Highly touted Magnolia Columbia goes against Nettleton at 12:30 this afternoon as the second day of first round play in the Class A and Class B state tournaments gets under way.

Columbia, 34-1 for the season and fourth-ranked in the Associated Press' Arkansas High School basketball poll, is one of the favorites in the Class A tournament.

Unbeaten Turrell, one of the choices in Class B, opens today's play in that classification against Sulphur Rock at 2.

Green Forest, the defending champion in Class A, advanced Monday along with Eudora East and Lava. Green Forest defeated Gossnell 74-53, Eudora East ousted Hot Springs Lakeside 63-50 and Lava moved past Brinkley 77-69.

Kirby beat Prattville 44-41, Star City Lincoln defeated Lynn 57-41 and Cotter disposed of Grubbs 69-46 in Class B action Monday.

Green Forest led Gossnell 34-25 at the half and continued to pull away during the final two periods. Randy Usrey scored 18 for Green Forest followed by Bill Hodges with 16 and Don Sugg with 15. Eddie Williams led Gossnell with 15.

Eudora East broke away from a 45-45 tie midway through the final period with a seven-point spurt in its victory. Joe Crenshaw had 29 for Eudora. David Smythys scored 23 for Lakeside.

Brinkley led Lava 37-35 at the half but couldn't keep up in the second half despite the 34-point performance of Gus Rusher. Ronald Bly scored 22 for Lava.

Donnie Davis hit three free throws with 15 seconds remaining to push Kirby past Prattville. His three points came with Kirby leading 41-39. Davis led Kirby with 16 points. Ron and Henderson had 14 for Prattville.

Star City Lincoln netted several steals from a modified zone press in the second half and pulled away from Lynn. Star City led by one point at the half. Cleveland Wainwright scored 18 for Lincoln. Lynn's Mickey Hampton led all scorers with 21.

Cotter, led by Jim Franks with 24 points, held a 50-24 lead over Grubbs entering the final period. Bill Kinard and Eddie Sullivan had 13 each for Grubbs.

Today's pairings:
Class A — Magnolia Columbia vs. Nettleton, 12:30; St. Anne's vs. McGehee, 3:30 and Manila vs. Mulberry, 8.

Teams Meet for Berth in Tourney

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Southern State and Arkansas College, two of the top four finishers in the AIC, meet here at 8:30 tonight for the right to shoot at league champion Henderson and a possible berth in the national NAIA tournament.

Southern State, beaten three times during the season by Ouachita, broke from a halftime tie and defeated the Tigers 90-78 in the semifinals of the AIC Tournament Monday night.

Arkansas College went ahead of Harding for good early in the second half and defeated the Bisons 73-70 in the other semifinal game.

The winner of tonight's game will play Henderson in a best of three series. The series champion will represent District 17 in the national tournament. SSC finished second in the AIC standings and Arkansas College tied Arkansas Tech for third.

Southern State spurred to a lead early in the second half and led by eight to 10 points most of the final 20 minutes. Ouachita came within six points about midway through the half but the Muleriders pulled away this time for good.

Billy Barnes scored 19 points and Ronnie Tollett 18 for the Muleriders. Robert Cornelius, James Chancellor and Danny Sheets scored 19 each for the Tigers.

Harding led Arkansas College 33-31 at the half but the Highlanders went ahead for good 39-37 with 14:57 left. The Highlanders led 57-45 with less than nine minutes left. The Bisons never got closer than three points the rest of the way.

Bill Cossey scored 28 for the Highlanders and Richard Beavers added 19. Jeff Stitt led Harding with 21.

Southern State has represented District 17 in the national tournament the past two years.

Arkansas to Entertain Baylor Bears

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Texas tries to overcome the home court advantage of Texas Christian at Fort Worth tonight in a pivotal game of Southwest Conference basketball.

TCU hasn't lost a game on its own court this season and is depending on that to carry it back into the heart of the championship fight.

If the Frogs should win, it would drop Texas, now leading the race by a game over Baylor, Texas Christian and Texas A&M, into a tie with TCU for the top rung.

Baylor is at Arkansas and Texas A&M at Texas Tech in other games tonight.

If Texas wins, TCU will be out of contention since it would be two games behind with only one to play.

In fact, Texas could clinch the championship if Baylor and Texas A&M also lose.

Texas has been successful in the past in beating Texas Christian on its home court although tonight's game will be the first test this season.

TCU's Mickey McCarty, the conference scoring leader, may be handicapped by a pulled groin muscle. McCarty's 29 points Saturday enabled the Frogs to tumble Texas A&M 85-78 and climb back into the thick of the race.

Waldron Cage Coach Resigns

WALDRON, Ark. (AP) — Ernie Whorton, 33, head basketball coach at Waldron High School for the last five years, announced Monday that he was resigning at the end of this school year.

Whorton, whose teams had compiled a record of 64 wins and 67 losses, said he was resigning for "personal reason" and probably would seek another coaching job in the state.

Also resigning was his wife, Jo Ann, who is girls' track coach and physical education teacher.

32 African Nations Out of Olympics

LONDON (AP) — Thirty-two African countries have pulled out of the Summer Olympics in Mexico City next fall and the big question now is whether the Russians will withdraw as well.

The Supreme Council for Sports in Africa met in Brazzaville, The Congo, and voted to withdraw from the Olympics because of South Africa's readmission to the competition, scheduled for Oct. 12-27.

In Moscow Monday, the Soviet Olympic Committee said it had not yet been decided whether Russia would compete. The Soviets have criticized the International Olympic Committee's decision to allow South Africa in the Games.

South Africa has agreed to send an integrated team to Mexico City, but will not alter its policy against mixed sports events within the highly segregated country.

Stu Miller
Willing to Live by Rules

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
Stu Miller is no law-breaker. He knows the rules of the game and he's willing to live by them. Happy about them he's not, but willing to live by them he is.

Miller's slow stuff was no mystery to American League batters. In 1967, the result was a 3-10 record—the poorest of the 40-year-old Baltimore reliever has had in 19 years of professional baseball.

"It will show in his paychecks this season."
"I expected a pay cut," said Miller, who was sliced from $40,000. "What else, after the year I had? It's the law of the jungle. Win and you are rewarded. Lose and they cut your salary."

But lose at Miller's age and sometimes teams cut more than your salary. Sometimes they cut you. Miller knows that and showed up at the Baltimore training camp weighing a trim 172 pounds, 10 under his playing weight. He went through his first workout Monday.

And Leo Durocher let his Chicago Cubs know they'd be in for it if he found it necessary to fine them this year.
"Just remember, fellows," Durocher told the Cubs at their first clubhouse meeting, "when I take your money for breaking rules, I don't start at $25. It's more likely to be $200 for a starter."

The New Yankees and Cleveland Indians came up with a couple of starters of their own. New York signed left-hander Al Downing, 14-10 last season, to a 1968 contract and Cleveland added righty Sonny Siebert, 10-12, in 1967.

Downing got a reported $9,000 raise to $31,000 and Siebert moved into the $40,000 neighborhood.

BEST YEAR

scheduled game Hope traveled up to Little Rock and clipped Joe T. Robinson 58-46.
District tournament came, with Prescott as host. Hope assured themselves of a state tournament spot by knocking Prescott out by 61-42 and moved into the long-awaited final against Ashdown. What a game it was, as the teams fought to a 47-47 standstill in regulation play, and a 49-49 tie after one overtime.

Nobody could say that the teams weren't evenly matched, but Ashdown took advantage of Hope's foul trouble and won 54-51 in double overtime. Thus the Lady Cats' 14-game winning streak was ended, and their 20 wins in 21 games became 20 out of 22.
With pride and determination the Lady Cats buckled down for the climax of the year with state tournament at Prescott, and the Prescott officials put on a great show, with only one unintentional flaw. Three referees were signed for the tournament, including Grady Cathey, who was principal of Hope High School last school year. However, the other two refs were assigned to do Hope's games. Then in the second game on Wednesday morning one of the other two officials injured his leg, putting him out of the picture. Thus Mr. Cathey had to call Hope's games too, which surely must have been a big burden on him, although he and Doyle Henderson did a good job with the rest of the tournament.

Beebe provided little opposition in the first round, and the Lady Cats rolled as easily as always, 57-22. A tough Leslie team stood opposite Hope in the quarterfinals, but a blistering offensive performance gave Hope the game 68-50. The meet's surprise team, Greenwood, now was left for the semifinals. No problem there, as a second half jaunt of 43 points made it 66-45 and Hope had another chance against Ashdown, this time in the state finals.

You know the rest, as one sickly point sent Ashdown home happy with the 47-46 win, while the Hope fans wept. Second in the state is no pushover, though, and the best a Hope team has ever done.
It was a year with a 25-6 record, in which "61" became the Lady Cats' lucky number. They hit 61 points six times, and won all six games. Further more, Hope is the only team in the state who can brag about beating both the State Class A and Class B champions, Ashdown and Bradley. And of the six losses for Hope, three went to Bradley and three went to Ashdown. That, my friends, is class opposition.

Seniors Carol Anthony, Kathryn Coleman, Gail Hartsfield, Vickie Reeves, Nellie Churchwell, Sandra May, Donna Byers, and Kay Coleman now depart, having won a sum total of seven tournament trophies over the last three years. They leave, however, very happy memories of a state finalist and, of course, that melancholy condition after losing in that game by one point.

It has been my privilege to have followed the Lady Cats for the past season, and this is a team that this writer, for one, shall never forget and always remember. And the cry that went out during the award ceremonies ending the state tournament lurks on. At just the right moment a fan stood and screamed, "Hope's still the best!" Some opposition aroused from the Ashdown side, to which the same fellow got up once again and hollered, "I still say Hope is the best!" This time the Hope fans brought down the house with a deafening roar. And you know, they just may have been right.

NEW YORK (AP) — Once upon a time basketball guards were feeders, not scorers.
It's hard to believe if you look at the current National Basketball Association statistics. The league's top four scorers are all back-courtmen.

Leading the pack is Detroit's Dave Bing with 1,809 points, almost 200 more than Seattle's Walt Hazzard.
Next come Baltimore's rookie Flash, Earl Monroe, and Philadelphia's Hal Greer. Wilt Chamberlain breaks the small man's stranglehold by capturing fifth place.

Chamberlain, Philadelphia's 7-foot-2 center, leads two other departments by wide margins. The big guy, who passed the 25,000-point plateau last week, is tops in field goal percentage with a .580 mark and in rebounds with 1,618, an average of almost 24 per game.

Founded Fund

George Frederick Handel, the great composer of instrumental music, was a charitable man with a dry sense of humor and a sympathy for musicians in financial trouble. He helped found the Fund for Decayed Musicians, now known as the Royal Society of Musicians.

We would like to take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation for all the kindness and love shown during the illness and death of our loved one, We especially want to thank Dr. Jud Martindale and his staff at Martindale Clinic and the staff at Memorial Hospital. Without the Grace of God and the love and loyalty of friends our grief would be more than we could bear.

Opening lead—A J

Look at the North hand. You have a perfect 16-point no-trump opening bid.

Your partner opens with one no-trump himself and, since that shows 16 to 18 points, your partnership total is from 32 to 34. If he has 16 only, you don't want to be in a slam; if he has 17 or 18, you do. You don't even want to get to five if he only holds 16—32 points should make five odd but doesn't do so every time.

You would like to bid four no-trump as a strong no-trump call, rather than Blackwood. We strongly recommend this one modification in use of Blackwood, which is that, when your partner opens in no-trump, the immediate raise to four no-trump is just a raise, not a demand for aces.

South has 17 points, plus two 10s, and bids six happily. The jack of spades is opened and he plays dummy's queen because West might have led from the king. East plays the king and South has to scramble for his contract.

His best play is to take the ace right away and run off four clubs. He discards the three of spades from dummy. Then he tries hearts and, when the jack drops on the second lead, he has four heart tricks. He lets his eight of spades go on the fourth heart and is now ready to think about the queen of diamonds. A lot will depend on the East-West discards on clubs and hearts. East should let two spades go and most Wests will discard two spades also. In that case, South may throw West in with his last spade and make him lead a diamond.

An alert West will discard the deuce of diamonds and the nine of spades and conceal his six spot. Then, if South leads a spade, West gets two spade tricks.

Of course, South can always guess where the queen of diamonds is. In any event, it is a tough contract after the spade lead when East holds the king. With any other lead, or with the king in the West hand, South would have had a cinch.

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Surgery Recommended For Aortic Aneurysm

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—My doctor says I have a small aortic aneurysm. How long will it be before it has to be operated on? What are the usual symptoms? What are the chances of recovery?

A—What a diverticulum is to the digestive tract, an aneurysm is to a blood vessel. Since the aorta extends from the heart to the lower part of the abdomen the symptoms depend on the location and the size of the outpouching. In some but not all cases, pain is a prominent symptom. In some, the aneurysm is visible in the neck. Encouraging advances have been made in the surgical treatment of this disease. Because surgery offers the only chance for recovery, it is not wise to delay it, especially since there is always the danger that the aneurysmal sac will burst and cause a serious internal hemorrhage.

Q—I have recently gone to work in an office where there are about 50 people. A man in the center of this area sprays a glue that contains toluene and carbon tetrachloride in processing pictures. The rest of us suffer from headaches, dizziness and smarting of the eyes. What can we do?

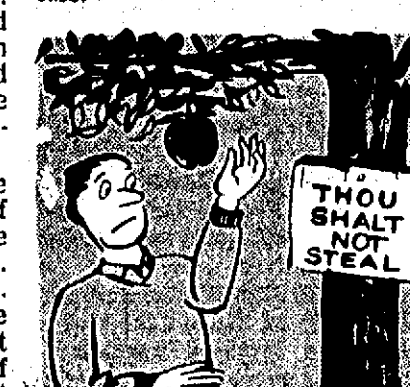

A—The maximum allowable concentration of toluene vapor in the air is 200 and of carbon tetrachloride 25 parts per million. A short exposure to 600 ppm of toluene will cause fatigue, mental confusion, nausea, headache and dizziness. Exposure to a high concentration of carbon tetrachloride causes unconsciousness and injury to the liver and kidneys. These substances should not be used indoors without an effective exhaust fan and periodic air sampling to determine whether the limits of safety are being exceeded.

Enact the Ten Commandments?

Not long ago, a western lawmaker proposed the enactment of the Ten Commandments as part of the state's criminal code. The proposal did not pass. But it did put into sharp focus the relationship between moral law and criminal law.

There are striking differences between the two systems of law. For one thing, moral law usually deals in generalities, criminal law in specifics. While the Sixth Commandment says generally that "Thou shalt not kill," the criminal law weighs the specific variations that may affect guilt in a particular case.

Thus, the criminal law recognizes that a person may indeed kill in the necessary defense of himself or his family. This is not a rejection of the Sixth Commandment. It is merely law on a different level.

Furthermore, moral law often sets standards that are too lofty, as a practical matter, to be enforced by criminal penalties. Imagine, for instance, the difficulties of enforcing the Tenth Commandment—"Thou shalt not covet"—by fines or jail sentences.

Yet, in a deeper sense, criminal law must at least be in harmony with moral law if it is to be acceptable to the community. It is to the moral law that mankind looks for its directions and its aspirations. And if moral law has the disadvantage of being general, it has the advantage of being enduring. Poet James Russell Lowell put it this way:

"In vain we call old notions fudge, And bend our conscience to our dealing;

The Ten Commandments will not budge, And stealing will continue stealing."

Also, because moral law speaks directly to the conscience, it may influence conduct in a way that no mere legislative enactment ever could.

In one case, a farmer posted a "NO TRESPASSING" sign in an effort to stop repeated thefts from his apple orchard. But apples continued to vanish. One day he changed the sign to read "THOU SHALT NOT STEAL." The thefts stopped at once.

Q--What is the origin of "getting someone's goat"?
A--It stems from horse racing. Spirited race horses are often calmed when provided with a small stablemate, such as a goat. In order to upset a horse, rival trainers would sometimes "get" (steal) his goat the day before a big race.

Q--Which is the only state in the Union to have a Greek motto?

Clifton Is Lending Hand to Reagan

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The ostensible reason F. Clifton White showed up at last week's Republican National Committee meeting here was to lend California Gov. Ronald Reagan's help to other GOP governors seeking larger voices in their party's platform deliberations. White, one of the masterminds of Barry Goldwater's 1964 campaign for the GOP presidential nomination, has recently gone to work for the California GOP national convention delegation, which Reagan will head as a favorite son.

Republican officials from Pennsylvania insisted that White's visit to their suite was to help Gov. Raymond P. Shafer in his so-far unsuccessful effort to win co-billing with Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen on the platform committee. They denied in private discussions that any alliance is shaping up between the conservative Reagan and Republican moderates, who favor either Michigan Gov. George Romney or New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller for the party's presidential nomination.

But such an alliance, aimed at front-running Richard M. Nixon, could make a great deal of sense to both camps. Romney's presidential hopes are tied directly to his uphill effort to defeat Nixon in the New Hampshire and Wisconsin presidential primaries.

As for Rockefeller and Reagan, who have said they are not candidates but whose supporters keep pushing them, their chances depend largely on whether Nixon falters enough during the primary season to turn the GOP convention into an open battle.

Republican congressional leaders, such as Wisconsin's Melvin R. Laird, who feel Rockefeller would be a stronger candidate than Nixon, think the former vice president will be the nominee if he sweeps primaries in New Hampshire, Wisconsin, Nebraska and Oregon.

But if he slips the convention could become a wide-open affair, with as many as 15 GOP favorite-son candidates, most of them governors, assuming an increasing importance. Rockefeller as well as Reagan is scheduled to be favorite-son candidate.

In such a situation, supporters of both Rockefeller and Reagan have reason to think their man could emerge as the nominee. Reagan will start with a nucleus of California plus a large bloc of Southern states which will support Nixon at the start but consider Reagan a stronger candidate in a three-cornered race with President Johnson and former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace.

Reagan supporters are also hoping many of the 1964 convention delegates, who gave Goldwater the nomination on the first ballot, will be at Miami Beach eager to support the most conservative possibility.

Rockefeller has strong support among GOP governors, who will play a strong role in the selection of delegates from their states. One party source estimated recently that at least 10 governors favor Rockefeller, to 4 for Nixon and 2 for Rockefeller himself and Rhode Island Gov. Hohn H. Chaffee for Romney. Most of the other 10 governors are moderates who might favor a Rockefeller candidacy.

Supporters of both Rockefeller and Reagan, who expect Nixon to win the early primaries, are looking toward Oregon as the best hope of stopping Nixon. Reagan already has the makings of a statewide organization there, and Rockefeller retains a strong nucleus of elected GOP officials from his 1964 primary victory there.

Congress Is Uneasy Over Defense

By JACK BELL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Richard B. Russell of the Senate Armed Services Committee expresses uneasiness about the U.S. military position at Khe Sanh where entrenched Marines face a potential massive Communist offensive. "I am afraid this position may be difficult to defend," said the Georgia Democrat. "I hope we will be able to reinforce our troops there sufficiently."

Russell, predicting more U.S. troops will be sent to Vietnam, indicated in an interview he also expects a call-up of ground reservists to fill gaps in American home forces depleted by Vietnam manpower needs.

He declined to speculate on how many more troops might be sent to Vietnam.

Russell and Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield agreed the pacification program in Vietnam had been all but wrecked when protective troops had to be withdrawn from villages and hamlets to defend the cities against the recent Viet Cong raids.

Mansfield said in a separate interview it is essential the program be revived, calling it the best hope for eventual stabilization of South Vietnam.

Russell said he is suggesting that the Senate preparedness subcommittee call Chairman Earle G. Wheeler of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to testify on likely increases in U.S. troop commitments in Vietnam.

Wheeler, en route home from Vietnam, said in Honolulu that U.S. forces were not surprised when the Viet Cong launched the raids. "Contrary to some allegations, they—U.S. forces—were not taken by surprise by the enemy's Tet offensive," Wheeler told newsmen. "Rather, they were alert to the impending attack, and Gen. William Westmoreland employed his troops in a timely and decisive manner to aid the South Vietnamese forces and to inflict major losses on the attacking units."

Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D.,

Tuesday, February 27, 1968

said he expects the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, of which he is a member, to summon Ambassador Robert W. Komer to report on the condition of the pacification program. Komer, in charge of the program, is returning from Saigon with Wheeler to report to President Johnson. They are due in Washington Wednesday.

Wheeler is bringing home from Vietnam recommendations for troop increases that Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, a war critic, said in a Senate speech may total 125,000 additional men.

Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee told his colleagues Monday that if more men are to be sent to Vietnam, Congress should be consulted in advance of any decision to escalate the war.

"In view of the disastrous situation in which we find ourselves, Congress should be informed of the plans before decisions are made," he said.

Mansfield said Johnson stands ready to talk to Foreign Relations Committee members about Vietnam actions. The Democratic leader said no date for such a conference had been set.

Mansfield again proposed in a Senate speech a trial halt in U.S. bombing of North Vietnam. But the Democrat who ranks second to Mansfield, Assistant Democratic Leader Russell B. Long, D-La., said any pause would be "a bad mistake."

Long said the American people "are getting disgusted with this talk of a pause, of pulling your punches when the enemy is slugging you."

Beer Permit Fees Raised

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Harrel Hughes, director of the state Alcoholic Beverage Control Board, raised the beer permit fees of the caterers to the Oaklawn Jockey Club Monday from $130 for 10 permits to $405.

Hughes also said that Ben Koppel, president of the Turf Catering Corp. of Chicago, was not a resident of Arkansas and canceled the beer permits of the firm. Hughes, however, waived the rules and allowed the corporation to refill for the permits in the name of Leon Hugh Werbaugh of Hot Springs.

British Sure To Approve Asian Ban

By RONALD THOMSON
Associated Press Writer
LONDON (AP) — Many members of Britain's House of Commons were troubled today as they gathered for the key vote on the Labor government's bill to stem the flood of Asians fleeing to Britain from Kenya. But despite the politicians' pangs, approval of the bill appeared certain.

The government got an assist from the leaders of the Conservative opposition, who decided to support the immigration bill. However, they did not make this mandatory on members of their party.

Many legislators confessed to feelings of guilt about slamming the door on Asians who chose British citizenship when the East African territories where they live became independent.

The bill enables the government to limit to 1,500 a year immigration of British citizens who were not born in Britain and whose parents were not born here. Hundreds of Asian residents of Kenya, denied work and business permits by Kenya's program to Africanize its economy, are arriving daily to beat the new British restrictions which are expected to become law by Thursday.

The Times of London said the bill "deprives British citizens of their rights in a way which would clearly, in the United States, be unconstitutional and in Britain is unprecedented."

"It is also a clear and definite breach of the word and honor of the British government... probably the most shameful measure that Labor members have ever been asked... to support."

However, the conservative Daily Mail said Britain is already overcrowded.

"White natives see their quality of life declining and blame the immigrants," the Mail said. "Those comfortable liberals who live miles away from the problem should remember that the horrifying riots in the United States spring from bitterness between poor blacks and poor whites."

Four amendments have been introduced seeking rejection of the bill after the debate on its second reading tonight. Defeat was expected for all of them. The bill must clear the second reading vote tonight, a routine third reading vote and the House of Lords, then be given the royal assent.

There was speculation that Conservative Party leader Edward Heath might introduce an amendment to grant would be own for another clearance, which meant another long wait.

As a result, airline officials reported extra flights scheduled for the exodus were not yet fully booked.

Self Defense Ruled in Shooting

TRUMANN, Ark. (AP) — A coroner's jury has ruled that Trumann Police Chief Marvin Cook fired in self defense Monday when he killed one of two escapees from the Poinsett County Jail at Harrisburg.

The victim of the shooting was identified as Hamlet A. Hayley, 34, of Wichita, Kan., and Forrest City, Hayley and Larry Hutcherson, 22, of Trumann, escaped after they overpowered a jail employee at knife-point Monday morning.

Hutcherson surrendered shortly after Hayley was shot during a 10-to-15 minute gun battle with about 20 law enforcement officers.

The pair fired at officers when they were trapped in a field about six miles southwest of Trumann.

Lt. Wayland Speer said the pair fled in the patrol car of Chief Deputy Sheriff Johnny Henderson after making their break from the jail. A sawed-off shotgun and a .357 magnum pistol were in the car.

Hutcherson was being held for burglary and grand larceny, assault with intent to kill and robbery. Hayley was being held on charges of burglary and grand larceny.

Child Perishes in House Fire

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—Lawrence Piggee, 2, son of Lennie Mae Piggee, died today in a pre-dawn fire that destroyed a small frame house about four miles west of here.

Authorities said the child's mother and twin brother, Lenson, and grandfather, Leonas Piggee, 70, were treated at a hospital here for injuries and dismissed.

Officers said 11 persons lived in the house, including five other Piggee children.

Cause of the fire was not determined.

Compromise Rights Terms Under Wraps

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Bipartisan sponsors of civil-rights legislation are keeping under wraps how far they may go to meet the compromise terms of Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen.

The Illinois senator said votes taken so far indicate a general desire for a bill—designed to protect Negroes and civil rights workers from violence—and he is inclined to believe a compromise can be worked out.

His bargaining position was strengthened when a second move to cut off debate and bring the legislation to a vote fell short Monday of the necessary two-thirds majority. The vote was 56-36 in favor of limiting further discussion.

But senators pushing for a civil-rights protection bill and an open-housing amendment were able to cite the vote as additional evidence of majority support.

It came on top of a 55-37 vote a week ago for cutting off the debate and a 58-34 vote against killing the proposed ban on discrimination in the sale or rental of about 97 per cent of U.S. housing.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said he was willing to let the 6-week-old debate run on a few more days while compromise efforts continue.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., said that on behalf of Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., the bill's floor manager, he has submitted proposed modifications to Dirksen.

Without disclosing the proposed changes, Javits said he was satisfied they were receiving Dirksen's "sympathetic consideration."

But Javits and Hart said they thought it might take two or three days to work out a compromise which Dirksen might support.

Although Dirksen previously has opposed federal open-housing legislation, he told reporters that a measure in this field could be made satisfactory to him.

He didn't say, however, what it would take to satisfy him.

Southern opponents of the legislation, left out of the compromise negotiations, vowed to fight on against its passage. But Dirksen said if a satisfactory compromise is worked out, he will vote next time to cut off the debate.

The vote Monday was 6 short of the required two-thirds majority. Voting for cloture were 37 Democrats and 19 Republicans. Against were 19 Democrats and 17 Republicans.

The only senator who switched his position from the vote a week before was Norris Cotton, R-N.H. He voted for ending the debate this time.

The House meanwhile passed, 307 to 45, a bill intended to ban discrimination in the selection of federal jurors.

Even if the Senate should approve a debate cut-off on a third attempt, more than a score of amendments in addition to the open-housing amendment can be called up for action. Among these are several anti-riot proposals.

And even more amendments are being offered.

One newly submitted by Sen. Jack Miller, R-Iowa, would require civil-rights workers to be certified by the federal Civil Rights Commission to be protected under the bill.

Martin Report: "30" Background for 2 Dissenters

Joe David Key, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Key, Washington highway, reported the arrival of two purple martins Monday, Feb. 26. Your editor's birds haven't gotten here yet and aren't expected before mid-March.

There is no fixed schedule on the migration of martins between South America and the U.S. But martins do return to the same boxes each year, so the record of any particular box will follow the flight schedule of its particular birds. Young Mr. Key's box belongs to the "February Martins," while my family favors the March tribe.

One last caution: Be sure your martins get a fair break when they do arrive. If sparrows hang around the box take it down promptly and clean out sparrow nests and young. You can do this after the martins arrive, for they don't nest immediately. But if sparrows are permitted to occupy the box then the martins will go elsewhere — due to some chivalrous code of the homeowners league of birds.

You have read in this column the dissent of two others editors from our criticism of the use of the figure 30 as an end mark for newspaper copy. Our piece appeared Jan. 25, was circulated South-wide by the Southern Newspaper Publishers Association, drawing retorts from Editor Sylvan Meyer of the Gainesville (Ga.) Daily Times, reprinted here Feb. 14; and from Editor Harry Provence of the Waco (Texas) Times-Herald, which we reprinted yesterday.

Neither of them questioned our historical accuracy, merely bemoaning the passing of what they fancy to be a romantic feather in the newspaper cap.

In my original report Jan. 25 I said newspapers used to steal their wire news from the railroad telegraph, and in the process picked up the railroad telegraphers' "30" signal as the end mark for an item. But later on the newspapers set up their own wire services. The Associated Press and United Press International. There was no more pirating of news, and "30" was too bad as an unpleasant reminder that piracy ever had existed.

My remarks of Jan. 25 were merely a memory transcription of what I heard in a news lecture at the Pulitzer School of Journalism, Columbia University, in 1921-22. The professor was the late Charles Cooper, for many years night managing editor of the old New York Herald-Tribune. He lived and worked in the days before there was an Associated Press or United Press International — so it is to be presumed he knew what he was talking about.

Obviously we have a professional dislike for the use of "30," reminding this enlightened day that there was robbery in our distant past.

Romantic, "30" may be, so was Jesse James supposed to be romantic. But you wouldn't expect a banker to buy the idea. Nor expect today's newspapers to glorify something that reflects on their professional past.

North Korea Claims Fish Fleet Worried

TOKYO (AP) — North Korea claimed today that U.S. spy ships "recently" mingled with South Korean fishing boats and violated Communist territorial waters.

The North Korean Central News Agency did not say if the alleged violations occurred before or after the North Koreans seized the USS Pueblo on Jan. 23.

The Communist agency said: "Only recently, the U.S. imperialist aggressors forcibly drove South Korean fishing boats into the coastal waters of the northern half of the republic, infiltrating armed spy ships mingled with them to perpetrate hostile acts."

The broadcast said several of the fishing boats were wrecked by a storm, but the crews were rescued by Communist patrol boats. It said the fishermen were treated in North Korea, then allowed to return home.

Democrats to Change Party Rule

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A special committee named to rewrite state Democratic party rules has proposed some sweeping changes, most of which are designed to tighten the reins on party members.

The changes, if approved at the state Democratic Convention next fall, would discourage the formation of groups such as the 1966 Democrats for Rockefeller and bar party defectors from seeking a Democratic nomination for office.

The committee was formed in March 1967 by state Democratic party Chairman Leon Catlett. It is to report its work Monday at a meeting of the Democratic State Committee.

Most of the changes were expected to be opposed by Jim Johnson, the 1966 Democratic gubernatorial nominee. One, for instance, would require support of the party's national ticket. Johnson defected to Republican Barry Goldwater in 1964, and this year is heading the drive to qualify George Wallace's American Independent party for Arkansas' general election ballot. He has justified both on grounds that the party rules now require no party loyalty except on the state level.

Democratic primary candidates would be required to pledge that they had not "withdrew" in the past two years voted for

Murders Are Easier to Solve Than Auto Thefts, Police Find

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

Car thieves cause more trouble to police departments than murderers. There are more of them and they are harder to catch. Murders are generally crimes of passion, and such crimes are usually easier to solve than those committed for money.

One of the puzzling things about having a miniskirted teen-age daughter today is that when she leaves the house you never can be sure by the way she's dressed whether she's going ice skating, to a ballet lesson, or to a school dance.

Many people can successfully write down the names of the 50 states in 10 minutes or less. But you can usually win money by betting any middle-aged man that in the same length of time he can't remember his social security number, his zip code number, and the old home telephone number of the last girl he dated before he married his wife.

Aside from his over exploitation of sex, Hollywood's worst habit is the making of those windy color epics so long that

Big Jobless Rate in Metropolitan Areas, Mostly Among Negroes

By SID HURDBURT
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The government says nearly one-third of job-age nonwhite youths — the vast bulk of them Negroes — are unemployed in the nation's 20 largest metropolitan areas.

A newly completed Bureau of Labor Statistics breakdown on unemployment shows the jobless rate for all potential nonwhite workers is at least triple that of whites in six of the cities.

It says 32.7 per cent of nonwhites aged 16 to 19 were without work — compared with an 11 per cent jobless rate for white teen-agers in the same 20 metropolitan areas.

The report, based on unemployment last year but believed to accurately reflect current urban employment patterns, appears certain to generate concern as the nation's big cities face another summer of predicted racial violence.

In the St. Louis metropolitan area, the over-all nonwhite unemployment was more than four times the white rate. No city-by-city breakdown was provided on teen-age unemployment by race.

The figures on total unemployment varied widely from area to area.

In Detroit, Pittsburgh and St. Louis, more than 10 per cent of the nonwhites in the work force were unemployed.

In Washington, only 3.2 per cent of the nonwhites in the work force were unemployed. Of the 20 areas included in the study, Los Angeles-Long Beach had the highest unemployment rate among white persons, 5.3 per cent. Washington had the lowest jobless rate among white persons, 2.0 per cent.

In St. Louis, the area with the greatest disparity between white and nonwhite unemployment, the white jobless rate was 2.9 per cent, the nonwhite rate 12.3 per cent.

Nonwhite unemployment was at least three times that of white persons in Chicago, Detroit, Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Baltimore as well as St. Louis. Nonwhite unemployment rates were between two and three times that of whites in four areas: Philadelphia, San Francisco-Oakland, Newark and Houston.

Of the areas for which comparative figures were provided, only New York, Los Angeles-Long Beach and Washington had nonwhite jobless rates less than double the white rates.

Billions for Idling Lands Urged by LBJ

By OVID A. MARTIN
AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson urged Congress today to make permanent the backbone of his farm-aid program — authority to pay farmers billions of dollars annually for idling land not needed for crops.

He predicted sharp declines in crop prices if the program isn't extended.

The program, highly controversial in Congress and among farm groups, is likely to become a major farm issue in this year's presidential election campaign.

Voted by Congress in 1965 for a five-year trial, it is scheduled to expire next year.

Payments have been running in excess of $3 billion a year under so-called supply and price stabilization programs for wheat, feed grains, cotton and wool.

This big money measure was part of a seven-point farm and rural-areas aid program the President placed before Congress in a special farm message.

Other main points of the program included:

— A three-year extension of the Food for Freedom program, under which this country provides food-production know-how to developing countries.

— A congressional study of ways to give farmers greater power to bargain for prices.

— Establishment of a "national food bank" under which reserves of wheat, feed grains and soybeans would be stored for income of the city dwellers costs are rising, and he is trapped in a vicious price-cost squeeze.

Such legislation was recommended last year.

Increasing the outlay for the food-stamp program, which helps feed the poor, from $225 million to $245 million a year.

— Expansion of such programs as loan and grant assistance to small farmers.

— Development of better federal programs in job training for the rural unemployed and underemployed.

WR Losing Patience With Murton

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said today he is losing patience with Prison Supt. Thomas O. Murton and that no one in the administration knew that Murton was making a trip to Berkeley, Calif.

Murton told newsmen on the West Coast that the prison system in Arkansas is being cleaned up but he also said that slavery wasn't abolished in 1865, it just was moved into the prisons.

"For him to go afield and seek out additional critical publicity of the situation that we are trying night and day to correct in Arkansas, I think not only is inappropriate but is embarrassing to the administration," Rockefeller said.

The governor was asked if he plans to rebuke Murton when he returns to Arkansas, and Rockefeller replied, "I certainly do."

Rockefeller then asked if this means Murton may not have the job much longer. He said this was up to the Prison Board, but he added, "I made it clear some time back that I did not see any purpose in our continuing to make a sideshow of the prison farm situation. We have got investigations going on. Let them complete their work and make their reports."

Rockefeller said he was "getting to the end of (his) patience with this constant fanning of the publicity about a situation that is in the hands of the proper law enforcement people."

Thinks U.S. Creating More Viet Cong Than We Are Destroying

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is "creating more Viet Cong than we are destroying," says Arthur Z. Gardiner, former director of the American foreign aid agency in Saigon who now heads a federally-backed organization operating there.

Saying he was expressing his personal views, Gardiner told an interviewer the United States should try hard for a peace settlement and pull its forces out of Vietnam.

He said such an approach would save American lives because "we are going down now on a course that has no ending whatsoever."

"Unless we do something different. We are going to be hopelessly bogged down in a major

WR to Fill Some Key Positions

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller indicated Monday he would name a new State Police director and fill other key positions before leaving late Wednesday to attend the National Governors Conference at Washington.

Rockefeller also said he hoped to appoint a commissioner of corrections and members of the new Pardon and Parole Board.

State Police Director Col. Carl L. Miller has announced he will resign no later than March 1. Rockefeller has already appointed Maj. Kenneth McKee, head of the highway patrol, to serve as acting director.

The governor did not elaborate on a statement that he wanted to appoint the State Police director before leaving the city "for a variety of reasons."

Rockefeller said he didn't think recent gambling raids in Hot Springs were of any particular significance in his decision. Miller ordered the raids.

Rockefeller said he was considering five or six persons for the three positions on the Board of Pardons and Paroles. The Department of Corrections was created by the recent session of the legislature. The legislation also requires the naming of a commissioner of corrections.

Rockefeller indicated that one of the persons he was considering appointing to the board was a Negro.

Rockefeller said he felt the quicker the appointments could be made the better it would be.

"I can assure you I'll be devoting a good deal of my time to it," the governor said.

Rockefeller also said he felt that Frank Whitbeck, the Little Rock insurance man who has
